

Juneau, Alaska

He is so in love with the girl with the jewel nose, that he thinks, "I'll ask her to marry me."

If she has a jewel nose (Juneau), I'll ask her (Alaska).

Sacramento, California

After touring all of the National Parks and Monuments and filling her sack with mementos, the cow will phone you.

With a sack of mementos (Sacramento), the cow will phone you (California).

Honolulu, Hawaii

Some roads are straight, some are crooked. But Highway E is where the honey trucks make loop loops.

Honey loop loops (Honolulu) are on Highway E (Hawaii).

Denver, Colorado

Relaxing in his den covered with fur, the lion listens to his collar radio.

A rich lion has a den of fur (Denver) and a collar radio (Colorado).

Salt Lake City, Utah

The city around the salt lake looks out at the tall U.

A salt lake city (Salt Lake City) has on its outskirts a U tall (Utah).

Helena, Montana

Ooh, I bet that hurts! There's a heel in a man tanning.

A heel in a (Helena) man tanning (Montana).

Salem, Oregon

The sailor's oar is gone, causing him to row in a circle.

The sailor's (Salem) oar is gone (Oregon).

Olympia, Washington

One of the new events in the Olympics is to see how fast you can wash a ton.

At the Olympics (Olympia), wash a ton (Washington).

Boise, Idaho

The boys see
(Boise) Ida hoe
(Idaho) the garden.

Cheyenne, Wyoming

A shy ant normally will live in a home built in the shape of a Y—a Y home.

A shy ant
(Cheyenne) in a
Y home (Wyoming).

Carson City, Nevada

The car son's
kitty (Carson City)
never had a (Nevada) bath.